

AMHERST CENTER FOR RUSSIAN CULTURE

Stepan Kolokol'nikov Papers
1867-1925

Summary: The Stepan Kolokol'nikov Papers reflect an émigré life of a prominent Russian businessman and his family

Quantity: 0.25 linear feet

Containers: 0.25 document manuscript box

Processed: January 2013

By: Tanya Chebotarev

Listed: January 2013

By: Tanya Chebotarev

Finding Aid: January 2013

Prepared by: Tanya Chebotarev

Edited by: Stanley Rabinowitz, Director, Center for Russian Culture

Access: There is no restriction on access to the Stepan Kolokol'nikov Papers for research use. Particularly fragile items may be restricted for preservation purposes.

Copyright: Requests for permission to publish material from the Stepan Kolokol'nikov Papers should be sent to the Director of the Amherst Center for Russian Culture. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

INTRODUCTION

Historical Note

Stepan Kolokol'nikov (1867-1925) was one of the heirs of the Russian company "Torgovyi Dom I.P. Kolokol'nikov i Nasledniki". The company was based in Tiumen and dealt with such commodities as flour, tea, and sugar. Stepan Kolokol'nikov was also a member of the First Russian State Duma and an honorable citizen of the city of Tiumen. Recently his house in Tiumen became a museum.

History of the Papers and Their Organization

In 1991, the Stepan Kolokol'nikov Papers were donated to the Amherst Center for Russian Culture by Thomas Whitney, AC Class of 1937.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COLLECTION

Scope and Content Note

The Papers consist of business records, personal documents, photographs, post cards, brochures and speeches related to Stepan Kolokol'nikov and "Torgovyi Dom I.P. Kolokol'nikov i nasledniki".

Organization and Arrangement

The Papers are organized as follows:

Box	Folder	Dates	Description
1	1	1867, 1900, 1922, 1925	Personal Documents – IDs, certificates, a will and related materials
1	2	1906, n.d.	Printed Materials – Bill of indictment, obituaries, post cards of Tiumen, appeals and speeches, brochures